

Junior Underwriter

Are you an insurance broker who is looking for a new challenge?

We are offering an exciting opportunity to a broker or underwriter who wishes to join a growing business for an opportunity to expand their skills in underwriting. We run package schemes and require a person who has the insurance knowledge and customer service ethos to grow within our team.

Our ideal candidate may have past experience in commercial lines and may have some underwriting experience. We want an individual who has shown a desire to learn and has strong insurance capabilities.

Perhaps you are looking to relocate from Dublin and want a new challenge?

Location: Carrick on Shannon, Co. Leitrim

Salary: Commensurate with experience

As a commercial underwriter your responsibilities will include negotiating and securing both new business and existing business.

- Developing broker relationships & communication with broker customers
- Analysing submissions and collating data to make decisions on risks.
- Identifying trends and patterns within the market
- Liaising with capacity providers on risks
- Working closely with Underwriting team to offer a professional and efficient service

The successful candidate will have:

- A proven track record in commercial broking or a junior underwriting role
- Possess demonstrable drive, self-motivation and determination to achieve results
- Be an energetic, motivated and disciplined individual with a positive attitude.
- Hold CIP qualification or be working towards this goal
- Excellent communication, negotiation and IT skills
- Perfect verbal and written English
- Ability to positively embrace change
- Possess a calm and considered demeanour, particularly if under pressure
- Continuously seek opportunities for process improvement and innovation

We will offer a great environment to support and nurture personal development & career growth, and assist them in progressing their education in Insurance.

ABOUT US

Brady Underwriting (formerly Eventinsure) is a growing underwriting agency with a number of schemes from Events, SME and personal accident business. From small beginnings as a retail broker we have grown our retail and wholesale brokerage into the thriving company it is today. Currently we have 21 staff across Commercial, Retail and Wholesale broking.

We like to maintain a friendly and collegial atmosphere and are a family friendly company. Having built on the success of having become a Lloyd's coverholder, we aim to build our retail and wholesale divisions.
