

The Insurance Institute of Ireland

1885—DIAMOND JUBILEE—1945

36 Dame Street,
Dublin

November, 1945

Dear Sir (or Madam),

We beg to remind you that the next Ordinary Meeting of the Institute will be held on Monday, 26th November, 1945, in Jury's Hotel, Dublin, commencing at 6 p.m.

The lecturer at this meeting will be

PERCY WILLIAMS, F.C.I.I. (Birmingham)

who will give

"SOME THOUGHTS ON INSURANCE TRAINING"

Mr. Williams who was a founder of the Discussion Circle and is an honorary member of this Institute has had a wide experience in the Insurance profession. His lecture is on a subject which is of supreme importance in the post-war Insurance World and should be of great interest to every member of the Institute.

It is hoped therefore that there will be a large attendance to welcome Mr. Williams who is travelling from Birmingham specially to speak to the members.

You are reminded that the closing date for entries for the "Wilkinson" Prize is 31st December.

Yours truly,

F. V. HILTON } Joint Hon.
A. C. DUTCH } Secretaries

Latest date for receipt of applications for Exemption from the C.I.I. Preliminary Examination is 13th December, '45
